Ideas for working with "Rainbow Blues"

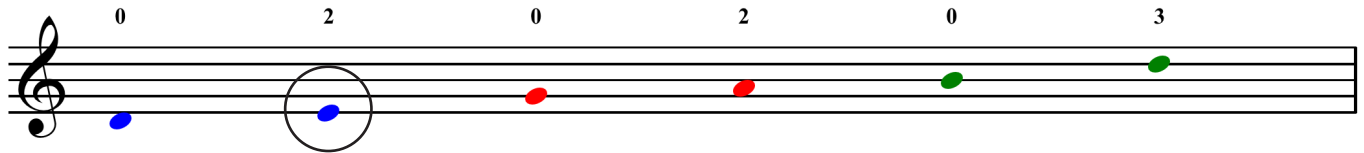

1. You can simply play the tune as written, 5 times through, with the backing track.
2. You could add notes in the empty bars. Here is an example for the first few bars:

3. Try inventing new rhythm patterns using the same notes as the tune. When you have made a good rhythm pattern, try repeating it throughout the tune.

4. Improvise freely over the backing using any of the notes below. Be aware that the main note is E. Use this note often and prominently.

5. Try making a riff (OSTINATO) from the notes above and repeating it all the way through the 12 bars of the sequence. Here is an example:
